Town council's lottery fund bid for Guildhall unsuccessful

WE MUST FIND ANOTHER WAY

Exiles get down to BUS-iness!

A MULTI-MILLION pound scheme to redevelop Abingdon's Guildhall has suffered a setback, after the town council's bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) was unsuccessful.

It means that the council now has to find alternative ways of funding the scheme, or slash the cost of developing the Guildhall from an estimated £4.4million to around £2.5m.

But despite the setback, the council were keen to state that the Guildhall plans, which include the building of a 100-seat cinema and revamping Abbey Hall, will still go ahead.

Cllr Iain Littlejohn, chairman of the Guildhall Committee, said: "We definitely will be redeveloping the Guildhall, it's just a question of exactly what form that redevelopment takes.

"One option is whether we can reduce the cost in the design we've got, although we're not asking the architects to compromise core functionality, so we still expect a cinema and multi-use hall.

"The second is looking at other funding options, and we're considering various alternatives.

"If we are unable to secure any funding partners, and we can't bring the cost of the actual development down, then we would talk about a tax increase.

"That seems to me the least likely option and it's not in our current plan, but you can never say never."

Cllr Alison Rooke, the Guildhall Committee's vice-chairman, added: "It is a great shame that on this occasion our application to HLF was not successful.

"The Guildhall remains a very important facility for the people of Abingdon and the surrounding area, and one that we are determined to invest in.

"It's important that we now take stock to ensure we move forward in the best possible way."

Ownership of the Guildhall was transferred from the Vale to the town council in 2011.

Money returned to conned students

SEVEN clients of an Oxford letting agent who were each swindled out of hundreds of pounds have got their money back, following intervention from Oxfordshire County Council's Trading Standards team.

Zulfiqar Hussain admitted to seven counts of engaging in an unfair commercial practice in 2012, relating to the operation of Charles Lawson Lettings in Cowley Road.

He received a suspended nine-month prison sentence and was ordered to pay back the money he misappropriated.

Hussain had paid back small amounts to the seven people he

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

duped, but had not settled until Trading Standards and other council colleagues made him reimburse them in full.

One of those tricked by Hussain was Alice Codner, who with her housemates has now been paid back more than £3,000 between them.

Ms Codner and her housemates had arranged to rent a house in East Avenue through Hussain in 2009, paying a deposit and a month's rent in advance, ahead of the start of term at Oxford University.

But one week before term began, they discovered that the property was not in Hussain's care, leaving them very little time to find alternative accommodation.

"We didn't have anywhere to live a week before term started when we found out what had happened and we were out of pocket - we couldn't believe it," said Ms Codner.

"It is hard enough to find student accommodation in Oxford and we were left with only a few days to find somewhere new."

"Trading Standards took up the case and Hussain was ordered to pay the money back, but time passed and we did not get back all of the money owed."

"It was with disbelief when I found out that the Trading Standards officers had managed to retrieve the money Hussain had misappropriated, and it was wonderful to suddenly have £800 each back."

Trading Standards manager Richard Webb said: "My staff and other council colleagues worked extremely hard to retrieve this money and, prior to that, bring Hussain to court."

"I hope this case acts as a strong warning to anybody thinking of doing a similar thing."

Historic rivalry set to resume in Boat Race

IT'S that time of year again when Oxford and Cambridge Universities vie for supremacy on the River Thames.

The 160th Boat Race, one of the oldest sporting events in the world, takes place this Sunday.

Oxford will be looking for back-to-back wins for the first time since 2009, after winning by a length and a third last year.

They trail Cambridge by four, who have lifted the trophy on 81 occasions.

Cambridge have the heavier boat, with an average weight of 92.3kg, while Oxford's crew is older, averaging 26-years-old.

Oxford's crew consists of (from bow to cox) Storm Uru, Tom Watson, Karl Hudspith, Thomas Swartz, Malcolm Howard, Michael Di Santo, Sam O'Connor, Constantine Louloudis and Laurence Harvey.

This year's race will start at 5.55pm.

Meanwhile, Oxford stormed to victory in the women's race at Henley last weekend.

Quality of living survey

OXFORD City Council is asking thousands of residents to complete a survey about the quality of living in their neighbourhoods.

Barton, Northway, The Leys, Cutteslowe, Wood Farm, Littlemore and Rose Hill residents will receive the Quality of Life Survey through their doors.

The survey has been created by the Oxford University Careers Service, Oxfordshire Healthwatch and the city council.

Results will be used to help show where improvements are needed and assist with planning priorities.

Cllr Steve Curran, board member for Youth and Communities, said: "The survey results will give officers the ability to track changes and improve the quality of life in the neighbourhoods of Oxford."

"It will also help in giving the residents a voice in what is important to them in their local area."

For more information and venues for residential meetings, contact the council's Neighbourhood Partnership Team on 01865 252828.

The survey is available online at www.surveymonkey.com/s/QualityofLife-Oxford.

Police ask for nominations

RESIDENTS in Oxfordshire are being asked to nominate officers and staff at Thames Valley Police who have had an impact on their local community for an annual award.

The Community Officer of the Year awards recognises staff who have made the greatest contribution to addressing the concerns of local residents over the past year.

Police officers, PCSOs, volunteers and special constables can be nominated for the award before May 15, ahead of the awards ceremony in July.

Assistant chief constable Richard Bennett said: "The Community Policing Awards is an opportunity to pay tribute to the important grassroots work that neighbourhood policing teams carry out in their communities."

"Neighbourhood policing is the bedrock of the service that we provide in protecting communities and preventing and detecting crime."

"Being involved in deciding who receives the awards is an aspect of my job that I particularly enjoy."

"Previous nominations show a range of innovative and effective initiatives carried out by neighbourhood teams to address the concerns of residents, and it is clear that these are greatly appreciated by the people we serve."

To nominate an officer, go to www.thamesvalley.police.uk/communityawards.

'We will re-apply for planning permission'

A HOUSING developer who acquired a controversial plot of land adjacent to Drayton Road in Abingdon has said they intend to re-apply for planning permission for the site.

Taylor Wimpey obtained the land from Hallam Land Management earlier this year, who had previously planned for 159 homes to be built on the site.

They were given permission to do so on the condition that pedestrian crossings were installed on nearby Ock Street and Mar-cham Road to address concerns about increased traffic in south Abingdon.

However the crossings were turned down by Oxfordshire County Council at a meeting last Thursday, meaning that the homes could not be built under the current application.

Despite last week's decision, Taylor Wimpey have said they were planning on re-applying with their own development regardless of the meeting's outcome.

In a statement, they said: "We have recently acquired the Drayton Road site from the previous owners and in due course will begin preparing a new planning application for residential development on this land."

"As part of this process, we will be discussing our emerging proposals with statutory consultees so that comments which have been made in relation to the previous scheme can be fully considered in our new application.

"We will also be conducting a full public consultation to give local people the chance to influence our proposals before our planning application is finalised."

They added that the application will likely be submitted later in the spring.

Peter Dodd, of Virginia Way, has been campaigning against housing on the land since last

He said: "All the residents, the MP (Nicola Blackwood), and the town, district and county councils have been against the development on this land."

"[Taylor Wimpey] should just not go ahead with it, because everyone's against it."

"We don't want any consultation."

"We just want them to concentrate on where the council wants them to build their properties in north Abingdon instead."

Work begins on new school's £15million science centre

ABINGDON School has exceeded its target of raising £1million towards the cost of a new science centre, which is set to open next September.

Pupils, parents, staff, governors and donors marked the laying down of the new science centre's foundations by digging a five square metre replica of the floor plan on the site of the centre.

"At last the journey to create our stunning new science centre really begins," said Felicity Lusk, head of Abingdon School.

"Not only are we laying the foundations for a wonderful building, we are building for the future of science at Abingdon, for the community and beyond."

"We are very grateful to all those who have donated to the science centre appeal and we have the honour of recognising two generous benefactors."

"We thank the Mercers' Company for their major grant to the project, as well as the Yang family, who have sponsored the building with a major gift and for whom the building will be named the Yang Science Centre."

The centre will cost £15million to build, and will include 21 teaching laboratories for biology, chemistry and physics.

Study rooms, preparatory rooms, a greenhouse and a pond will also be incorporated into the plans.

News Bites

Hot, hot, hot!

A WOMAN who works at the Abingdon branch of Robert Stanley opticians has raised over £600 for a children's charity by walking barefoot across hot coals.

Caroline O'Connor took part in the Firewalk for SeeSaw, an organisation which supports children when a parent or sibling has died that has been named by Robert Stanley as its Charity of the Year.

Get snapping!

CHILDREN and students aged five to 21 in Abingdon are invited to enter a photography competition, being held by the Rotary Club of Abingdon Vesper.

Budding photographers are challenged with taking their own pictures of Abingdon, with an emphasis on the River Thames.

The closing date for entries is May 12, and there will be a public exhibition of the winners following judging.

To submit a photograph, email photo2014@abingdon-rotary.org.uk.

Dragon hunt

TEAMS are being sought for this year's Dragon Boat Day, taking place on the River Thames in Abingdon on September 7.

A Dragon Boat team is made up of 16 paddlers and a drummer, with a series of 250m races before the final later that afternoon.

Anyone wishing to find out more about entering a team should go to www.abingdon-dragonboats.org.uk.

Council gives shopping centre the green light

CHERWELL District Council has given the go ahead to revised plans for the Banbury Gateway shopping development, following a special planning meeting last Thursday.

The development will see a retail park built to the north of the town on the former site of engineering company Prodrive, with plans for 14 shops and two restaurants.

It had already been granted planning permission from the council in December 2012, with amendments approved in May and October last year.

And last week's meeting approved further changes to the plans.

This includes amalgamating three shop units into one to accommodate a new branch of Primark.

It will also help to reduce the number of A3 use units, currently intended for food establishments, from three to two under a canopy.

Minor revisions were also made in the ground floor footprint of units nine and 10, as well as redistributing floorspace to create a new unit and reducing car parking from 623 to 591 spaces.

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Cherwell's lead member for planning, Cllr Michael Gibbard, said: "Banbury Gateway is set to benefit the town as a whole.

"We recognised this with the original application and have now confirmed it again by agreeing this revised proposal.

"With the addition of another flagship store to the development and no change in the scheme's footprint, Banbury Gateway will create hundreds of new employment opportunities for residents."

In a separate move last Thursday, the Court of Appeal in London rejected a bid against the development by Scottish Widows PLC and Aegon UK Property, owners of Castle Quay and Banbury Cross Retail Park respectively.

They had claimed that the planning permission for Banbury Gateway was legally flawed, but this was turned down by the court.

Full details of the latest application can be found on the council's website: www.cherwell.gov.uk.

MP celebrates 15 years of minimum wage

OXFORD East MP Andrew Smith has marked the 15th anniversary of the establishment of the National Minimum Wage.

A major policy of Tony Blair's premiership, the National Minimum Wage is said to have helped in boosting living standards.

Mr Smith was joined by Anne-liese Dodds, Labour candidate for South East MP, and Sally Copley, Labour parliamentary candidate for Oxford West & Abingdon, to celebrate the occasion.

He said: "Here in Oxford, the city council already pay their workers a living wage.

"I support the efforts of campaign groups, such as the Oxford Living Wage Campaign, who are working closely with major employers to get them to pay their staff a fairer wage."

A review is currently underway for the how the National Minimum Wage can be strengthened, including the extension of the Low Pay Commission's powers.

Investigation after ducks found shot

THREE ducks and a moorhen have been found dead on a pond in Bicester, with vets who examined the bodies concluding that they had been shot.

The RSPCA was called on March 22 after concerned passers-by noticed the floating bodies of the animals in Jubilee Lakes, near Avocet Way.

Four birds were found and taken to a nearby vet, who confirmed they had been shot but didn't know what type of gun had been used.

RSPCA inspector Andy Eddy said: "It seems these poor animals were the victims of a deliberate attack - some kind of callous target practice. I found four bodies but it seems likely that there were more. It was a really horrible and utterly unnecessary act of cruelty."

Bicester town councillor Dan Sames added: "I can't believe that people would be so cruel as to take pot shots at a living animal like this.

"I know lots of families with children go to this spot to feed the ducks, and it is absolutely horrific that they instead find their dead bodies floating in the water."

Cloudy2Clear Windows - Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Josh Flory feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and Josh is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Josh a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Rights of way

A COUNTY Council consultation on public rights of way, relating to over 1,700 miles of footpath and 650 miles of bridleway, is due to end in two week's time.

The council's draft Rights of Way Management Plan shows how the council aims to manage access to the countryside over the next 10 years.

Burford fire

FIRE crews managed to prevent a major fire at a Burford laundrette spreading to adjacent buildings, after they were called out last Tuesday evening.

The fire at Burford Laundry, on Witney Street, was quickly put out. Nobody was inside at the time. Station manager Julian Green praised the crews for their swift efforts.

Dog attack

A 32-YEAR-OLD woman has been left bruised after she was attacked by a dog in the country park on Kilkenny Lane, Carterton, on March 22.

The victim was running in the park when a black mongrel dog ran towards her and bit her left side at around 10.30am.

A lady in her fifties was walking the dog at the time. Call 101 with information.

Faster trains expected in rail improvements

RAIL passengers in Oxford and the south west are set to benefit from more than £7billion of investment, as part of a five-year plan to improve services in the region.

Trains from London Marylebone will link to Oxford as part of a scheme to improve capacity between Didcot North Junction and Aynho Junction.

The Great Western Main Line (GWML) from London Paddington to Oxford, Bristol and Newbury will also be electrified by 2016-17.

This will allow for the introduction of Super Express Trains on the route, which have 20 per cent more seats and will lead to reductions in journey times of up to 22 minutes.

And a rail link between Heathrow and the GWML will give passengers from Oxford access to the airport by rail.

Patrick Hallgate, route managing director for Network Rail Western, said: "Britain's railways are a vital part of our national infrastructure.

"They connect homes and workplaces, businesses with markets, they create jobs, stimulate trade and support the growth of a balanced economy.

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"Passenger numbers in recent years have grown far beyond even our own industry's predictions, so it's vital that this investment over the next five years helps meet the continuing increase in demand for rail travel.

"Bigger, better stations, more tracks and longer platforms, electric powered trains, reopened railway lines and fewer level crossings all will help deliver more frequent, comfortable and reliable journeys."

In addition to the capital expenditure projects, £400million will be invested in replacing 625 miles of track, and a further £200million on upgrading structures on the route.

Network Rail is also publishing its first ever Western route climate change adaptation strategy, to protect against extreme weather at vulnerable sites.

A new high density service between Reading, Maidenhead and Heathrow will also run from December 2019 to reduce crowding on the eastern stretch of the Western route by 30 per cent.

Laser gun idea wins award for Oxon school

A WEST Oxfordshire school has been announced as the winner of 'The School We'd Like' competition, giving students and teachers the chance to improve their school community.

Chipping Norton School was chosen from over 300 entries in the secondary schools category, and have won £5,000 to put their plans into action.

Their idea was to build a laser gun obstacle course to teach maths, with a shed in the grounds transformed into a maze that students would need to navigate through.

To complete the course they must unlock a series of gates by solving a sum and firing the laser at the correct answer, as well as helping students think under pressure.

Steven Mavromichalis, from the school, said: "The students are well deserved in their victory.

"They dedicated a lot of time and effort in developing the idea, and everyone at the school is extremely pleased to hear that they will soon be proud custodians of a maths classroom like no other."

Local MP David Cameron added: "The children and teachers' proposal for a laser tag game to encourage mathematics is really inspired and it's great to hear it will now become a reality.

"I know it will have a real impact on the school community and look forward to seeing it in action soon."

West Oxon's sportiest talents are honoured

SPORTING stars from across West Oxfordshire have been honoured at an annual awards ceremony, which took place at Witney Lakes Resort on Monday.

The West Oxfordshire Sports Awards 2014 saw 28 sportspeople recognised for their skill and prowess, as well as the wealth of emerging talent in the district.

It was organised by West Oxfordshire District Council and the GLL Sport Foundation, with up to £1,000 of funding being awarded to each winner.

The winners will also receive

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

free training membership at council-owned leisure facilities in West Oxfordshire.

Cllr Richard Langridge, cabinet member responsible for leisure, said: "It is an absolute privilege to honour the passion, dedication and commitment of these local sportspeople, who set an outstanding example for us all. They are flying the flag for West Oxfordshire locally, nationally, and in some cases, worldwide.

"Our council is very proud to support them as they develop their careers and achieve their goals."

Charlotte Bacon, 16, was the sole winner of the World Class Talent award for her achievements in equestrian eventing, after she helped her team to win bronze at the 2013 Junior European Eventing Championships.

The teenager, from Shipton-under-Wychwood, said: "It's really generous of the council and GLL to give me an award like this, and it will definitely go towards my training and development."

"I'm very grateful, and I am aiming high and want to make it to the big stage - I hope to get to the Olympics."

Peter Bunday, chair of the GLL Sport Foundation added: "These are super talented people trying to get themselves up the rankings and we are extremely pleased to support them."

"We give these awards to help them explore their dreams. They are inspirational people, many of them young, and we want them to go as far as they can."

"All of the awardees should feel very proud of themselves."

Homes debate 'contentious'

THE need for new homes is a very contentious issue across Oxfordshire, at least as much in my Wantage and Didcot Constituency as anywhere else. There are many local people who do need new homes, but many also have concerns about the process of planning where those homes should be and what the right numbers are.

Over recent months, I have been involved in many local campaigns about additional housing across my constituency, and have made specific objections both to Planning Committees and Planning Inspectors about a number of planning applications which clearly were not in the interests of local communities. Through that engagement, and other events such as the public meeting I arranged so that constituents could put their points of view and questions about planning directly to the Planning Minister, Nick Boles, I am very aware of the huge anxiety that is caused both to individuals and communities through inappropriate plans for housing.

It is in that context that I have considered the plans put forward by the Vale of White Horse District Council for more than 7,000 additional homes across the area, with developments imposed on almost every community of any size. While we do undoubtedly need more homes, we do need to be sure that the way in which housing numbers are calculated is appropriate. It is also clear to me that plans for infrastructure, such as roads, sewerage and schools need to be properly developed before any actual building goes ahead.

Police appeal

AN ELDERLY bed-ridden woman was left traumatised after offenders broke into her Kidlington home last Friday, police have said. Between 10.30am and 4.30pm, the offenders broke into the house in The Moors and, after an untidy search, entered one of the bedrooms where they disturbed the woman.

They left empty-handed, and the woman was not harmed. Anyone with information should call 101.

Lorry thefts

THIEVES have sawn through a wooden fence and stolen from lorries, which were parked in a compound in Bicester, last month.

A total of 13 wheels and tyres were taken from three rigid lorries between 7pm on March 21 and 1.10am on March 24 at the compound in The Garth, Launton Road.

Intruder

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a burglary in Bicester.

The burglar was disturbed when seeing the kitchen light turned on. Nothing was taken.

It took place last Saturday at around 10.40pm on Bucknell Road. Call 101 with information.

'A lower carbon NHS'

• David Cameron MP and Professor Dame Sue Bailey planting the tree at Warneford Hospital

PRIME Minister David Cameron MP marked NHS sustainability day by planting a tree at an Oxford hospital last Thursday, to celebrate the efforts of NHS Trusts and health-care organisations to reduce carbon emissions.

Trees have been donated by NHS Forest, a project run by the Centre for Sustainable Healthcare, with them being planted at Oxford Health NHS Foundation sites in the coming years.

It has also been recognised that green spaces play a part in helping reduce mental health symptoms, leading to relaxation and decreased agitation and aggression among patients.

Mr Cameron jointly planted the tree with the president of the Royal College of Psychiatrists, Professor Dame Sue Bailey.

The Prime Minister said: "NHS Trusts, such as Oxford Health NHS Foundation, can play an important role in contributing to reducing the country's carbon footprint."

"Some of the initiatives I have been very interested to hear about include the tree-planting programme and also a project that helps people affected by mental health issues reap real benefits from the natural environment."

"I congratulate the trust and its partners for this excellent work that contributes to a lower carbon NHS."

Professor Bailey added: "Most people know now that physical activity can be an effective supplement to treatment in mild and moderate depression and anxiety disorders."

"But direct contact with nature

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

also leads to a greater sense of connectedness with the community.

"Sustainable healthcare will also need to feature prominently in any future mental health service so I fully support Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust's commitment to using this meadow as a recovery space for patients."

Oxford NHS Foundation Trust chief executive Stuart Bell said: "We are delighted that the Prime Minister could join us today to celebrate this initiative to plant trees donated by NHS Forest."

"We are also fortunate to have a large green space, the Warneford Meadow, and look forward to working with partners to use this area for the benefit of our patients."

Government's long-term plan

THE recent Budget is part of our long-term economic plan to give economic security to the families of Britain. The single biggest risk would be to abandon the plan and listen to Labour's calls to borrow more, spend more and put up taxes. That would put families' economic security at risk. That is why I want to comment on two points: the help we have given to savers, and the reform of the pension system.

Support for savers was at the centre of the Budget. It started by making ISAs simpler by merging the cash and stocks ISAs into a single New ISA. The annual limit will increase to £15,000 a year. Coupled with this was the ending of the 10p rate of tax on savings income. The 10p starting rate on savings income will become a zero-pence rate. Around 1.5million low income savers will benefit. Finally, a new pensioner bond will be introduced in January 2015 to offer a better return than any equivalent in the market today.

Our work on pension reform was fundamental. From April 2015 we will legislate to remove all remaining tax restrictions on how to access direct contribution pension pots: No one will have to buy an annuity if they don't want to. Those who still want the certainty of an annuity, as many will, will be able to shop around for the best deal. But what you take above the tax-free lump sum will be taxed at normal marginal tax rates – not 55% as at the moment. These reforms show we trust people to make decisions for themselves about their own money. They are to be welcomed as a major contribution to the changes to pensions which have been introduced.

Double knife attack

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy has been threatened with two knives and robbed of his iPhone and a small sum of money in Oxford, police have said.

It took place on March 19 at around 7.45pm on Meadow Lane, when the boy was approached from behind by four Asian males, aged between 15 and 17.

One boy, aged 17, was arrested on the same day on suspicion of robbery and bailed to return to Abingdon police station on April 22.

During the incident, the four suspects grabbed the victim by the mouth, preventing him from breathing, and threatened him with two knives.

After the robbery, the victim made his way to Chester Street, where he sought help, and was taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital for treatment to a head injury. He has since returned home.

Police believe one of the males was 5ft 6ins tall, wearing gloves and a red or brown-coloured item across his face.

There is no description available of the other offenders. Call 101.

Man charged

A 21-YEAR-OLD man has been charged with perverting the course of justice in relation to the Connor Tremble murder investigation.

Connor, 17, died on February 15 after he was stabbed in his Oxford flat.

The man has been released on bail to appear at Oxford Magistrates' Court on April 14.

Assault arrest

THAMES Valley Police has arrested an 18-year-old man in connection with a sexual assault at an Oxford nightclub.

The incident occurred at around 2am on March 22 at the Plush Lounge, Park End Street. He was bailed to appear back at St Aldates police station on Tuesday.

Home care

PEOPLE who receive home care have had their feedback incorporated into a county council standards document.

A draft set of standards were drawn up and sent to 1,600 home care users.

Results showed that 95 per cent of people felt the standards were correct.

The HomeCare Standards for Home Support Services document will now be implemented.

Lights go out on city's Christmas parade

A POPULAR Christmas parade due to take place in Oxford later this year has been cancelled.

The Children's Lantern Parade was set to be part of Oxford City Council's three-day Christmas Light Festival, taking place from November 21 to 23.

But a decision was made not to enforce any road closures for this year's festival after complaints were made about disruption at last year's event, leading to the cancellation of the parade on St Giles.

Cllr Bob Price, leader of the city council, said: "The road closure and security measures required for the enormous numbers of people who crowd into restricted road space for the parade are very expensive."

"It required a massive investment in raising sponsorship income, as well as letting out the market stalls."

"The council does not have the capacity to do that again and budget restrictions do not allow us to fund the event from council tax income."

"In addition, the disruption caused for the bus services and people seeking to access the city centre with a long period of closure for St Giles has led to

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

objections from the bus companies and some colleges."

But Cllr Craig Simmons, leader of the Greens, has criticised the move, and is supporting a residents' petition against the cancellation.

He said: "The parade is an extremely popular event, especially amongst children who make these lanterns at school, so we very much want the council to reverse the decision."

"We will be asking questions of the council [at a meeting] on April 14 about why it's been cancelled, as we don't believe it's a cost issue."

"We think it's because of the objections and we're asking why the council is not standing up for the parade or finding an alternate location."

"And if they are cancelling, we want to know what other event they are doing that involves children instead."

Last year's festival saw 100,000 people attend the three-day event, with a reported economic impact of £1.8million over the weekend.

Rugby stars to feature on Oxford's buses

LONDON Welsh players will be following your every move over the next few months, as they will emblazon buses across the county.

Club captain Matt Corker, team captain Tom May, and Sonny Parker will adorn over 30 Stagecoach buses covering routes including Abingdon, Blackbird Leys, Didcot, Jericho and Wantage.

The campaign is all part of a push to attract bumper crowds as the Exiles push for a return to the Aviva Premiership.

"We love playing at the Kassam and moving to Oxford has been fantastic for us," said Matt, who has made just under 200 appearances for the Exiles.

"I can speak for the whole squad that we love playing at the Kassam, being in Oxford is great for us as a team."

The 31-year-old added: "We are really putting the roots down here and it is where our focus is."

"The response we are getting from people is that they are very happy to have us."

"There is a real interest, especially when we were in the Premiership."

"We really hope everyone who has been to see us already will come down, and bring friends, and fill it out because it is a fantastic atmosphere at the Kassam when we get a good crowd."

Drug busts 'send out a clear message' - police

THAMES Valley Police has sent out a clear message to people involved with drugs after multiple arrests in the city last week.

Two men and a woman were arrested after patrols and searches in the Barton and Risinghurst area of Oxford on March 20.

All three have been bailed until June 6, pending further investigation.

Officers arrested the two men, aged 28 and 32, on suspicion of possession of a controlled substance with intent to supply, after targeted patrols in Collinwood Road.

A cannabis factory was also discovered after officers searched a property in Barton and Risinghurst.

Suspected class A drugs and a rucksack containing a white crystalline substance were found at the house.

As a result, a 32-year-old woman was arrested on suspicion of possession of a controlled substance with intent to supply and cultivation of cannabis.

Neighbourhood Sgt Martyn Williams hopes the arrests send out a clear warning.

"I hope this sends out the message to the community that we will act on information we receive to continue to catch those involved in drug dealing and drug use both on the street and at home," he said.

"I hope that the result shows the community that if you deal drugs or take drugs in Oxford then we will catch you."

"Drugs will not be tolerated in the area."

Cllr Dee Sinclair, ward member for Quarry and Risinghurst, added: "I am delighted the police have acted promptly and arrested suspects."

"It gives reassurance to residents and businesses in the area that by working together we can keep the community of Risinghurst safe."

If you have any information about drug-related activity in the area, contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Robber behind bars after bus stop attack

A MAN has been jailed for four years after robbing two women ing for a coach. Aaron Johnson, 25, of Mathern Road, Chepstow, was found guilty at Oxford Crown Court on March 21.

Johnson robbed two women, aged 26 and 29, while they were waiting at a bus stop on London Road last year, ready to catch a coach to the airport.

The 25-year-old and an unknown man approached the women, punching one of them in the face and assaulting the other as she tried to help her friend. An iPad and handbags were stolen while the victims sustained bruising to their legs and face.

PC Rachel Linzey, said: "It has taken a year to bring the offender to justice and this sentencing shows that violent crime will not be tolerated."

"In terms of the prison sentence, justice has been served and the victims can now move with their lives."

"It has been a lengthy investigation and I am extremely pleased with the result."

Cops hailed for domestic abuse effort

A REPORT by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC) has praised Thames Valley Police's work in tackling domestic abuse.

The force was singled out in the report for its training of officers and staff on risk assessment, honour based violence, stalking, harassment and coercive control.

Between August 2012 and 2013, 33 per cent of all recorded assaults with injury were domestic abuse related. Assistant chief constable John Campbell said:

"We welcome the positive HMIC feedback and are pleased that the report acknowledges tackling domestic abuse is a priority for our force. Also, that our staff has a good understanding of what needs to be done to provide a good service to victims."

However, he recognises that further improvements need to be made.

"We acknowledge the areas for improvement and are already in the process of addressing the recommendations in the report," ACC Campbell added.

"In particular, that high rate of domestic abuse arrests by TVP needs improvement to convert to successful prosecutions resulting in convictions."

News Bites

Duo charged

TWO men from Oxford have been charged in connection with supplying drugs.

A 32-year-old was charged with counts of conspiring to supply heroin and cocaine.

The other man, aged 33, has been charged with one count of possession with intent to supply cocaine.

Their arrests followed warrants in Oxford and Abingdon as part of Operation Strix.

Ambassadors

SIX volunteers have been appointed as community ambassadors to support charities and groups across the county.

Oxfordshire Community and Voluntary Action (OCVA) will have ambassadors operating in Abingdon, Henley, Thame, Wallingford, Wantage and Grove.

The 'fatberg'

THAMES Water workers are preparing to deal with a 'fatberg' over Easter, which has developed in the sewer underneath Hollybush Row in Oxford. The 'fatberg' is a congealed mass of fat, wet wipes and other litter that has wrongly been put down drains and toilets, causing the sewer to collapse.

Work will begin on Monday for about two weeks.

Marathon effort from Jonathan

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

AN OXFORD University student is hoping to raise £2,000 for the Children's Liver Disease Foundation (CLDF), as he takes part in the London Marathon next weekend.

Jonathan Davidson, 21, from Cheadle Hulme, will be taking a break from studying for his upcoming final exams to run the marathon, for a charity that is very close to his heart.

"My brother Edward was born with the rare liver disease alpha-1 antitrypsin deficiency, and in 2012 was given a life-saving liver transplant," said Jonathan.

"Thankfully he is now living a healthy life but I know all about the impact which childhood liver disease has on a family, and also appreciate the value of the support which CLDF provides."

"I did a half marathon for CLDF two years ago but felt that the time was right for a greater challenge. Training is going well - the greatest challenge really is balancing a rigorous training regime with my academic commitments!"

• Jonathan Davidson (right) will be running the London Marathon in support of CLDF and his brother Edward (left)

Jonathan has almost reached his £2,000 target, and the money will be used by CLDF to continue their support for young liver disease patients and their families.

It will also fund research into childhood liver disease for which there is still no cure.

Alison Taylor, chief executive of CLDF, said: "Supporting fundraising for the majority of our income."

"We're delighted and very grateful that Jonathan has chosen to add to his workload by doing this for us and hope he thoroughly enjoys his first marathon experience."

Appeal after thefts in the city centre

POLICE are appealing for witnesses of thefts in the city centre last month, which so far has seen the arrests of a 16-year-old boy and 18-year-old man from Birmingham.

It comes as part of Operation Big Dipper, which is targeting pick pocketing in Oxford, and relates to incidents of theft on March 20 between 3pm and 7pm.

Officers are keen to trace a woman who was in Starbucks on Cornmarket Street at around 6pm, who is shown on CCTV as having her phone stolen before running after the thieves and getting it back.

An iPhone 5 was also recovered from a suspect, believed to be stolen in a pub somewhere in the city, and police are keen for the owner to come forward.

The two people from Birmingham were arrested on suspicion of thefts in Oxford and Leamington Spa, and have been bailed until April 25.

Anyone with information relating to the thefts is asked to contact PC Matthew Leney at St Aldates police station on 101.

Alternatively, contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Tuxedo Jazz

THE smartly dressed Tuxedo Jazz Orchestra comes to Didcot's Cornerstone on Saturday, performing the music of the best British and American dance bands from the 1920s and '30s.

Led by vocalist Tony Jacobs, the show is packed with recreated tunes from names such as Bing Crosby and Duke Ellington, as well as background information about the music.

Three for Joy

CARNIVAL Band violinist Giles Lewin and clog dancer Hannah James join singer Maddy Prior tomorrow night, for a performance at Witney's Langdale Hall.

Maddy recently released her latest album '3 For Joy', and is performing the music of Britain and Eastern Europe in this tour with Giles and Hannah.

For tickets, call 01865 241717.

Flood dilemma

CHILDREN'S theatre production The Sorcerer's Apprentice comes to the Burton Taylor Studio on Saturday, for three shows during the day.

It follows the story of a young boy who inadvertently causes a flood, and has to try to undo the spell before the sorcerer returns. Shows at 11am, 2pm and 4pm.

Not a drag for Jason!

AUSTRALIAN actor and singer Jason Donovan comes to Oxford's New Theatre this evening, as he stars in the award-winning musical Priscilla Queen of the Desert.

The West End hit show began its national tour early last year, and is in Oxford until Saturday after starting its run at the New Theatre earlier this week.

It follows the story of Tick, a drag queen who goes by the name Mitzi Mitosis, who is about to meet his eight-year-old son Benji in distant Alice Springs for the first time.

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

To make the journey, he and some friends buy a campervan, which they nickname Priscilla, and travel across Australia with plenty of entertainment along the way.

"It's been very successful," said Jason, who will play the role of Tick from tonight. "I hope that people enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed touring it. It's a very modern musical about the story of a bunch of misfits, and it's really worth checking out."

Jason returns to playing Tick after first performing the role during its West End run from 2009 to 2011.

He said: "I think this show is different from the West End show because it tends to centre more around my character than it did in London."

"There's nothing different about Tick though, I just try and bring that human side to the character, give him honesty and make him vulnerable, all those things."

And as expected with any musical, there are a wide selection of songs in the production, including 'Go West', 'I Will Survive' and 'Always on my Mind'.

"There's some great songs in it," Jason added. "Shows like this for an act like myself don't come along very often, so you tend to stick with them while you can."

"And I've got three children who cost me a fortune, so I've got to work!"

For a full list of show times and ticket prices, go to www.newtheatreoxford.co.uk or call the box office on 0844 871 3020.

Henley stages the Full Monty

AN AMERICANISED musical stage version of the classic British film The Full Monty is staged at Henley's Kenton Theatre from Wednesday.

Six unemployed Buffalo steelworkers decide to present a strip act at a local club, and the group have to overcome their inner demons and find strength in their camaraderie.

The Dark Side

PINK Floyd tribute act Dark Side Of The Wall comes to Banbury's Mill Arts Centre on Saturday, with two hours of music dedicated to the iconic group.

Dark Side Of The Wall are now in their 19th year, and Saturday's show will include plenty of classic Pink Floyd tracks for fans to enjoy.

It starts at 8pm.

Instrumental

BRISTOL-BASED instrumental group Spiro arrive in Oxford on Saturday evening, featuring the music of Jane Harbour, Alex Vann, Jason Sparkes and Jon Hunt.

They have been performing since 1993 and have released four albums during that time, including their most recent release 'Kaleidophonica' in 2012. The show starts at 8pm. Go to www.thenorthwall.com for more details.

Street dance

A STREET dance workshop for eight to 12-year-olds runs at the Chipping Norton Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, to teach youngsters about choreography.

Children will also be devising some of their own steps as they work towards an exciting original performance.

Another level for trio

DERBY three-piece rock band LostAlone come to Oxford's O2 Academy tomorrow night, ahead of the release of their new album 'Shape Of Screams' next week.

Comprised of lead singer Steven Battelle, bass guitarist Alan Williamson and drummer Mark Gibson, LostAlone are currently touring the UK to promote the upcoming album.

Brand new single 'Scarlet Letter Rhymes' is also being released this month, and the band will be performing songs new and old at tomorrow's show.

"I think the most striking thing about the new album is that people always like the vocal harmonies that we do, and on this record we've taken it to a level that hasn't been heard in recent times," said Steven. "That's the biggest difference. People always mention the vocal harmonies on the previous records, so I think if they thought that was a lot, wait until they hear this!"

In recent months, LostAlone have toured alongside big names including The Darkness, Paramore and My Chemical Romance, which Steven said has helped build up the band's profile.

He added: "They're all bands we toured with because they liked our music. It was great and I've got nothing but positive things to say about them.

By Adam Flinn

"You realise why those bands have done so well because they're so committed to the music, and I'd say that you find people with the most success are the nicest. You can play with a band in a tiny venue who maybe think a bit too much of themselves, but when you support a band at Wembley Arena, they're the most humble people."

Doors open at 6.30pm for tomorrow's show. For more details, go to www.o2academyoxford.co.uk.

Guys and Dolls

ONE of the most popular musicals of all time, Guys and Dolls, is staged at the Oxford Playhouse for five performances starting from Wednesday.

The story was made famous by the 1955 film starring Marlon Brando, with this production being performed by the Musical Youth Company of Oxford. It is running until April 12, and more information about show times can be found at www.oxford-playhouse.com.

TALK: THE ROMAN ARMY FACT AND FICTION

By Dr John Smith an archaeologist who has studied the Roman Army for over 20 years and excavated and worked at Rockbourne and Bignor Roman Villas. This is a living history presentation, reviewing the historical and archaeological evidence for the Roman Army, in the Empire and South-West England. John will present Roman equipment and artefacts (some from the Camerton Hoard) and discuss their practicality, construction and uses, and debunk some popular and media portrayals of the Roman Army.

Visitors (£3) are most welcome."

THE JOHN CROCKER / JIM DOUGLAS EXPERIENCE

"John Crocker was the clarinetist with Chris Barber for some 30 years. He is a superb and dynamic player whether on clarinet or tenor sax. He has got together with Jim Douglas who played guitar and banjo with the Alex Welsh band for nearly 20 years. This unusual "font line" has proved to be very entertaining and will appear with a rhythm team of Tim Huskisson, piano, Dave Moorwood, guitar and Andy Lawrence, bass. Tickets £10 on the door."

Over the holidays there will be "free" guided tours around the Rainforest looking at some of the amazing adaptations found in our animals, birds & plants - Come and find out how our cheeky monkeys and other animals are especially adapted to life in the rainforest.

There will be keeper led Monkey "feeding time" talks so come and meet our monkeys for an afternoon feed & find out why the Goeldi's monkey is a zoological puzzle.

Also every day there will be also be craft workshops such as;

Monkey mobiles - hang around with us to create a monkey mobile

Gangly gibbons - famous for swinging through the branches with their long arms, make your own gangly gibbon

Monkey masks - disguise yourself as your favourite primate

The Living Rainforest is situated between Reading and Newbury,

So come down this Easter, It's great whatever the weather.

For more details, visit www.livingrainforest.org

Tours are free with entry however we do have limited spaces available on these ever-popular guided tours. So put your name down as soon as you arrive*

Join us during the Easter holidays for springtime frolics and author visits...

...and at weekends for crackling crafts, storytelling and workshops

WIN tickets to see London Welsh play!

MAY 30, 2012 is a day that will long in the memory and history of London Welsh RFC, as amidst joyous scenes at Oxford's Kassam Stadium the Exiles were crowned Championship winners.

It ushered forth a glorious Aviva Premiership season which saw the likes of Leicester Tigers, Harlequins, Bath and Northampton Saints visit the Kassam, and those days could be set to return.

Two years on, hopes are for another euphoric evening to rival that of 2012, and with it the return of top flight rugby to Oxfordshire.

Championship play-off place now secure, just three games remain in the regular season, beginning with the visit of Jersey to the Kassam Stadium on April 12 (KO 2pm), for London Welsh head coach Justin Burnell to hone his side, before things start to get really serious in the semi-finals. It promises to be tense and exciting.

And you can play your part. Help bring top flight rugby back to

Closing date:

Wednesday, April 9, 2014

Oxfordshire – roar the Dragons back to the Premiership!

WIN TICKETS!

To be in with a chance to win a pair of tickets to this sensational fixture just answer the simple question below:

Q: Who is the head coach of London Welsh?

A few hints on vehicle maintenance as we head towards summer

Keep your car looking great

ROAD safety charity the IAM (Institute of Advanced Motorists) is offering weekly motoring tips to drivers from Britain's top advanced driver, Peter Rodger.

This week we advise drivers on how to prime their cars properly for the warmer weather.

The IAM recommends seven ways to prepare your car:

- Now is a good time to give your car a spring clean. Salt is corrosive and will cause rusting if left on the bodywork. If possible take your car to a car wash that specialises in under-car cleaning to get rid of every trace.

- The UK pollen season can be pretty miserable for hayfever sufferers, so replacing your car's pollen filter annually is a vital investment. Keeping your air-conditioning well maintained will help as well.

- Servicing your air-con will also help your car smell better. If it smells stale when you turn the heating on, it could well be a sign that mould is building up in your condenser.

- Flies will soon be out in force so be sure to refill your washer fluid. Habitually washing the windscreen and headlamps when you stop for fuel is also important as windscreen wipers won't get rid of all the fly debris.

- Old wiper blades are not only noisy, they can leave marks on the windscreen, so remember to replace them regularly. Clean them regularly to avoid damaging your windscreen.

- After a pot-holed winter, check your wheel and tyre alignment. Misaligned tyres wear out more quickly.

- Anti-freeze contains corrosion inhibitors so you should keep your car topped up all year round - going without could lead to expensive engine damage.

Mr Rodger said: "After a long winter of wear and tear from snow, salt and pot-holes, your car needs attention."

"Preparing for the spring and making checks now can save you a lot of money in the long run."

• Wheel alignment (inset) is just one of the ways to take care of your car

As the weather is constantly changing, we recommend that you prepare as best you can by ensuring your vehicle is in it's best possible condition. Simply book your car in and take advantage of our Vehicle Health Check.

We at Humphris Oxford are offering a

FREE VEHICLE HEALTH CHECK (WORTH £24.99)

Our Vehicle Health check focuses on key areas such as:

- Wiper and Washer Fluid
- Anti-Freeze/Coolant Strength
- Battery Condition
- All Bulbs
- Tyre Tread and Pressure
- Oil, Brake and Power Steering Levels

Our Vehicle Health Check takes about half an hour to complete so you have the choice to sit in our comfortable waiting area with hot drinks available or drop the vehicle off with us and collect it later at a convenient time.

If you would like to book your vehicle in for your Free Vehicle Health Check then please contact the Service Department who will be more than happy to assist you further.

Working for local wildlife

Location: Your local area

Closing date: 17/04/2014

Do you have an interest in your local wildlife and environment? Do you enjoy meeting people? Then we would love to hear from you.

The Berks, Bucks & Oxon Wildlife Trust is looking for outgoing people to promote our work and raise support through membership recruitment at people's homes. The role offers significant flexibility on a part-time basis (typically 3 - 5 days per week). No hard selling is required and full training is provided.

The role offers the potential to earn between £250 and £450 a week on a commission-based package, with minimum wage guaranteed.

Boss urges unity after freak Dagenham loss

GARY Waddock is urging Oxford United to stick together after his side suffered the cruellest of defeats at Dagenham & Redbridge last weekend.

With only a minute to go, Luke Howell's blocked effort ricocheted off Matt Bevans and looped over Ryan Clarke.

The 1-0 defeat at Victoria Road sees Waddock still searching for his first points since becoming United's head coach just under a fortnight ago.

Meanwhile, United's place in Sky Bet League Two's play-offs is looking precarious as they slipped to seventh following last weekend's loss.

With fourth-placed Fleetwood Town visiting the Kassam Stadium this weekend, Waddock is

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewsandpapers.co.uk

fully aware of the importance of Saturday's match.

"It's got to turn fairly soon because this can't continue," Waddock told the club.

"We have got to draw a line under it and move on, the sooner the better."

He added: "Everyone is giving everything."

"The support we had was fantastic and they were right behind the team."

"They are as frustrated as all of us and we all want to put it right and the only way we can do that is by sticking together."

"I felt for everybody and it was cruel the way we went down to a defeat but we will dust ourselves down and go again."

United only took four points from seven games last month, scoring just three goals.

Despite last weekend's defeat, Waddock felt there were positives to take from the performance.

"We had some good moments in the game," he said.

"We created two or three good chances and it was an improvement on Monday night's performance (the defeat to Southend) but it can be cruel sometimes this game."

"There was improvement in certain areas but the goal is comical and it is very hard to take."

Tom and Viv the heroes as City grab valuable win

TOM Winters and Viv Solomon-Otabor fired Oxford City to a 2-0 win over Gloucester City on Tuesday evening.

Mike Ford's men are now two points from safety in the Skril North.

However, 19th-placed Histon and 20th-placed Stalybridge Celtic have games in hand.

City's win over Gloucester on Tuesday was only their second victory away from Marsh Lane this season.

It sparks an upturn in form for City who have taken seven points from their last five league matches.

Ford will be hoping his side can record back-to-back wins for only the second time this season when they face Gainsborough Trinity this evening.

Solid start for Plato at BTCC opener

TWO podiums got Jason Plato's championship challenge off to a solid start during the first round of the British Touring Car Championship at Brands Hatch last Sunday.

The Oxford-born racer missed out on pole position by 0.012 of a second, and followed reigning champion Andrew Jordan home in second place in the first race.

But there were problems in race two, as a software glitch off the line dropped Plato to the back, although he eventually recovered to finish 11th.

And Plato was able to continue his fightback in race three, finishing third after overtaking Rob Collard in the closing laps to end the day on the podium.

"I've had quite a few of those sort of races in my career coming from the pack, it's brilliant fun," said Plato.

"We just need to understand why we keep having some gremlins in the system."

"But my tail is in the air after that result."

"We've turned it around and we're motivated now we've had our first podium finish on the soft tyre."

Plato is fifth in the championship standings after the first three races with 38 points, nine behind Jordan. The next race is at Donington Park on April 20.

Sport Bites

Henley joy

HENLEY Hawks RFC returned to winning ways last Saturday, as they beat Worthing Raiders 21-16 to move to 13th in the SSE National League 1.

But there was disappointment for Chinnor, who lost 47-31 to London Irish WG in their SSE National League 2 South encounter.

Elsewhere, Oxford Harlequins won the South West 1 East title last weekend with a 52-8 win over Maidenhead, while Grove beat Reading and Witney lost to Windsor.

Champions

OXFORD City Stars were crowned National Ice Hockey League 2 South Cup champions last Sunday night, after a 3-1 win over Bristol Pitbulls.

Goals from Alan Green, James Pentecost and Darren Elliott gave Stars the lead, and despite the Pitbulls pushing forward in the final moments Stars were able to hang on.

Their attention now turns to a crucial game with Slough Jets on Sunday, which could decide the outcome of the league.

Hawks win

OXFORD Hawks shocked the South Hockey Premier division leaders Chichester last Saturday, beating the newly-promoted club 3-2.

But Oxford University couldn't follow their 3-0 win of last week, losing 2-1 to Staines at the weekend.

University ended the season fourth in the standings with 40 points, while Hawks were eighth on 27.

More points for Williams

WILLIAMS Martini Racing added to their points total at last Sunday's Malaysian Grand Prix, as Felipe Massa and Valtteri Bottas came home seventh and eighth.

The pair had been closing on Jenson Button in the closing laps, when the team ordered Massa to move over and let Bottas try to overtake the McLaren.

But Massa refused, with the three drivers finishing in the same order and Williams collecting 10 points from the weekend. Massa said: "I don't think this track particularly suited our car, so we have done well to finish where we have."

Elsewhere, Lotus and Caterham achieved their first finishes of the season as Romain Grosjean came 11th, Kamui Kobayashi 13th and Marcus Ericsson 14th.

Max Chilton was able to get his Marussia to the flag in 15th, while his team-mate Jules Bianchi retired after eight laps with a brake problem. Williams remain fourth in the constructors' championship with 20 points, while Lotus, Caterham and Marussia are yet to score.

CONFIDENT U'S EDGE SHRIVVY

Zoldan's men record vital three points in bid to avoid relegation

ABINGDON United boss Andy Zoldan said confidence in the team is high after beating Shrivenham 4-3 on Tuesday night.

Goals from Josh Crooks, Calum Wilkinson, Graham Edney and Kieran Cochrane gave the U's a vital three points in their bid to avoid relegation from the Hellenic Premier Division.

The Northcourt side are now unbeaten in four games and are up to 17th in the division, but have played more games than the sides around them.

"It was a must-win game, especially after drawing with Holyport - as I said before that was two points lost," said Zoldan.

"We had to win to keep ourselves in the chase to finish as high as possible.

"Confidence-wise the boys are on top of their game at the moment.

"The confidence has not been higher in the team since we took over, really.

"We've got things turned round, and there's also been an improvement."

Zoldan added: "We were always two goals clear until the last 10 minutes when they put a bit of pressure on.

By James Booker

jamesb@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"Our keeper didn't have to make many saves at all on the night, so for me it was a deserved victory and we controlled the game."

Next up for Abingdon is another clash with Vale neighbours Wantage Town on Tuesday night.

And Zoldan hopes to have four key players back for the match against the title contenders - Adam Garner and Nick Thorne look set to return from injury, while Wade Rutherford and Jack Bernasconi will also be fighting for a starting spot after being unavailable.

Despite scoring four on Tuesday, Zoldan says his team are still in need of a goalscorer to "turn the draws into wins".

The U's now have 25 points from 35 matches.

Meanwhile, it was a landmark day for U's neighbours Abingdon Town, who secured their first win of the season.

Town, who are bottom of the table, won 2-1 against Oxford City Nomads to take their tally to nine points, having drawn six and lost 24 of their 31 matches.

Higher education

Whether it is a promotion at work, a change of career, or increasing your knowledge around a specific subject, Higher Education will make a difference to you.

Our HE courses include Honours Degrees and Foundation Degrees in partnership with Oxford Brookes University, Access to HE, HNDs and professional courses.

- Entry requirements vary from course to course. Please look on our website for details. If you don't have A Levels you could still gain entry with BTEC or other vocational qualifications. Age is no barrier – the number of people 21+ years old in HE is rising.

- Student Loans are available to cover course fees. There are no upfront costs and you don't start repayments until you have finished your course and are earning at least £21,000 pa. As an example, if you earn £25,000 you'll repay approximately £30 per month.

- All degrees are offered in partnership with Oxford Brookes University, so you can enjoy all the facilities and benefits of being a student of the University.

- For degree courses you must apply via www.ucas.com and not the College – you can apply up until the start of the course. For HNDs, Access to HE, professional courses and the 3 year FD in Engineering courses only, complete the attached enrolment form.

Engineering the Future

Abingdon and Witney College is currently undergoing a major transformation as it installs new facilities to meet the growing demand for jobs in science, engineering and technology across Oxfordshire. Recently awarded another £6 million to further develop the Abingdon campus, the College will shortly be the proud owners of a brand new engineering workshop kitted out with high tech machinery and equipment which will help to train the engineers and scientists of the future.

And the improvements don't stop there - last year, the College completed the renovation of its new Information Technology suites at Abingdon to mirror the specialist facilities already in place at Witney and now have been granted planning permission to spend another £8.8m at Witney to finish the radical transformation of the facilities there.

If you are interested in working in the space industry, learning about fusion technology or starting a career in the advanced technology and manufacturing sectors then Abingdon and Witney College is the place for you!

Full time courses available include:

- Level 2 Diploma in Engineering
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Engineering
- Level 2 Diploma in Information Technology
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Information Technology
- Level 2 Diploma in Applied Science
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Applied Science

Or why not earn while you learn and think about an apprenticeship in IT, Engineering or Laboratory Technicians?

At higher levels you could take a HNC or HND in Engineering, a Foundation Degree in Mechanical or Electrical Engineering, Foundation Degree in Computing or consider an Access course in Science to help you to progress to University.

Call us now on 01235 555 585 to talk about which course would be right for your future.
